AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one, but many nations must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever cured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equaled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effective cure of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickens, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

FOR PRESIDENT.

Of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR,
Of New York.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Private dispatches have been received in San Francisco from Mazatlan stating that revolutionists had occupied the town and subsequently been routed by the government troops.

A case of small pox was discovered in San Francisco yesterday and was removed to the pest house. The patient came from San Jose last week, where he had been for a few days in search of work.

As the French National fete day, the 14th of July, approaches, railway trains with pleasure parties are arriving and high society is emigrating. The Bonapartist newspapers advise their readers not to participate in any way in the festivities, a circumstance that stimulates Republican ardor. Arrangements for illuminations, fireworks, etc., throughout Paris are being made on a most liberal and extensive scale.

The State Executive Committee of the National Greenback Labor party, Silas Selleck chairman, met before last in San Francisco and passed a resolution denouncing the selection of Kearney by the Chicago Convention as a representative of the party in the National Committee as an insult to the party in California. This Executive Committee represents the original Greenback faction of the State before Kearney joined the movement.

Governor St. John, of Kansas, wants to be renominated.

The Toledo Blade counts on 200 electoral votes for Garfield.

The number of negroes who have emigrated to Indiana is estimated by Republicans as not exceeding one thousand.

Hendricks is expected to take an active part in the campaign, with an eye single for the Secretaryship of the Interior.

An Anti-Polygamy Standard is published in Salt Lake City. This is carrying the war into Utah and boarding the twin relic in its cradle.

The Secretary of the Treasury has ordered an investigation of the disaster to the steamboat Narragansett, which was in collision with the Stonington.

The Tuscarora Times-Review estimates that the gold shipments of that place this year from placer mining will foot up between $25,000 and $30,000. None but Chinese are engaged in this industry there.

An Inter-Ocean Washington special says: It is certain that the claims made at Cincinnati, that the Democrats would carry Pennsylvania, were idle boasts. Hancock is weak in his own State.

A private letter from White Sulphur Springs says the report in the Northern papers of unfriendliness between Senators Blaine and Cameron is absurd. These gentlemen daily take horseback rides together and are upon the most intimate terms.

The Chicago Journal says: The Iowa Republicans are putting forward their strongest men for Congress. The nomination of Kasson, Batts and Thompson has been already announced, and yesterday, in the Ninth District, ex-Governor C. C. Carpenter, of Fort Dodge, was nominated for re-election. Iowa ought to elect a solid Republican delegation to Congress this Presidential year, and we think she will.

The "Solid South" Weakening.

A Chicago Tribune Washington special says: The Republican leaders have resolved to issue an address to the Southern Republicans urging them to hold meetings wherever practicable, to carry on a live canvass and promising them substantial support.

A private letter received there from Senator Jones, of Florida, says he does not consider the Florida Legislature by any means certain for the Democrats, and that a hard fight will have to be made to keep a Republican out of the Senate. Jones is a candidate for re-election.

THE COLLEGE SEASON.

It is estimated says an eastern exchange that the various colleges of the United States turn out an average of four thousand graduates per year. These are not all classically educated, of course; we notice that of seventy-eight persons graduated at one somewhat famous institution in Central New York, only twelve received the diploma of a Bachelor of Arts; the others took their degrees in science, engineering, etc. This incident shows that the colleges, especially the newer ones, are adapting their instruction to the practical demands of the times. It also indicates that a large proportion of the young men now in college are from the poorer classes, who study for the sake of acquiring what knowledge they need, and not for the gratification of an ambition to be "liberally" educated. As a result, the country is filling up with educated young men in all departments of business, as well as professional life, and for the same reason new colleges are multiplying and old ones are enlarging their accommodations.

It is now many years since a college education was able to confer any exclusive distinction upon its possessor. We find graduates all over the country filling minor and unremunerative positions, and unable after years of hard labor and study to rise above the level at which they made their start in life. Four-fifths of the third-rate lawyers, doctors and ministers of to-day are graduates. But let it not be said that their time was wasted, or that a good shoemaker was spoiled in making a poor professional man. They would not have made a success in any other vocation, for the "root of the matter" not in them. But their education has added to the enjoyment of their lives, while they have filled certain places that had to be filled to better advantage than if they had acquired less information. Broad culture makes men genial, courteous and liberal minded. We are glad that there are such men in the world—men who are compelled, for want of certain capacity, to dwell and labor among people of lower and less informed lives. They are always working up some youthful mind, and inspiring a healthful search for knowledge.

The college is becoming more and more the popular educator. It does not secure to men positions more desirable than those held by others less educated, for we find among our representative men, statesmen, legislators, governors, presidents, and even judges, a liberal sprinkling of those who have never seen the interior of a college. The men who succeed are those who make the best use of such opportunities as are afforded them. In any large city there can be found educated men, and even coarse and ignorant men, who have succeeded in a material sense far beyond the best educated of their neighbors. The college will attain its highest possibilities when it can confer upon every young man of promising abilities such an education as will best fit him for any position in life.

Republican Gains in Maryland Predicted.

Ex-Postmaster General Creswell says that a revolution in the politics of Maryland may be expected at the fall elections in that State, which will probably result in the gaining of two additional Congressmen by the Republicans. The proposition on which the gain is to be made is from prominent Democrats in Baltimore, who have become dissatisfied with the present Democratic management, and have offered to arrange matters so that a very large number of illegally registered voters will be thrown from the registration list, which will seriously affect the Democratic majority in the district of which Baltimore forms an important part, particularly the Fourth and Fifth districts. As an evidence of the disgust of the Democratic management in that State, Colonel Edwin Webster, who was Collector of the Port of Baltimore under President Johnson, and Fredric Store, who represented the Fifth district in Congress in 1872, both avowed Democrats, were announced to address the Garfield meeting at Baltimore Wednesday night, but, owing to pressure of other business, did not attend but sent letters expressing in strongest terms their support of the Republican nomination for President. Ex-Postmaster General Creswell stated to-day that there was no doubt of great Republican gains in Maryland at the coming fall elections, and that the indications were they would continue until the Presidential election.

CARSON AND ORMSBY COUNTY.—Mr. Thomas Tennent, the census enumerator for Ormsby county, reports the following as the result:

Population of Carson City.....4,236
Ormsby Co., outside of Carson.....1,200
Total.....5,436
Number of Chinese in Chinese quarter in Carson City, about 620; deaths in Carson City between June 1, 1879, and June 1, 1880, 49; the same being white, 41; colored, 8; Chinese, 6.

PRELIMINARY SURVEY.

(Eureka Leader.)

We have the very best authority for saying that within a very short time—probably in the course of the next ten days—a surveying party will be placed in the field to determine the most practicable route for a narrow-gauge railroad from Eureka to connect with the Utah Southern. This will be done by the authorities of the Eureka and Pella Railroad. When this survey has been made it is in contemplation, we believe, to submit the matter to the business men of this community, and if found desirable a company will be formed here for the purpose of building the road.

The railroad company has been canvassing the merits of three routes, which might be severally called the Eastern, Southeastern and Southern routes. None of them have as yet been surveyed or sufficiently explored for any definite conclusion to be reached as to which will be the most feasible or promises to be the most remunerative in the matter of way business.

The Eastern route, after crossing the summit of the Diamond Range, would strike northeasterly and cross the White Pine Range through a gap about fifteen miles north of Hamilton. Some pass would have to be found in the Steptoe Range. Probably what is known as Hercules Gap would answer the purpose. The route would pass a little north of Ward and Osceola, and through a low gap in the Snake Range; whence it would strike a little south of, east, to Deseret, where it would intersect the Utah Southern. It is estimated that the length of road to be built on this route would be about 210 miles.

All the routes under consideration cross the Diamond Range at the same point. The Southeastern route would bear southerly across the Pancake Range, through a pass almost due south from the mouth of the canyon on the other side of the summit; thence southerly across the southern extremity of the White Pine range of mountains, crossing into Steptoe Valley at a point about three miles south of Ward; thence, by the same pass, over the Snake Creek Range, as the eastern route, to Deseret.

The Southern route, after crossing the summit, would strike nearly due south, and would be run as nearly as possible to Tybo, Reveille, Tem Plute, Bristol and Pioche districts, with the view of assisting in the development of those districts, striking the timbered portion of White Pine Mountains, and ultimately of connecting with the Utah Southern at some point south of Deseret.

The survey which is about being made is to determine which of these routes is the most feasible and which promises to be the most remunerative in the way of freights it could command, and timber regions that it would tap. This thing of routes is simply a matter of detail. Eureka's need is a line of railroad connecting it with some other transcontinental road beside the Central Pacific. In short, it wants to enjoy the luxury of being a competitive point, and to receive the consideration in the way of rates of freight that such points always command from railroads. Anything that promises such a result should, and probably will, receive all the aid and encouragement that this community can give.
